

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy applies to all of the services offered by Delfys Systems Ltd. In addition, where more detailed information is needed to explain our privacy practices, we post supplementary privacy notices to describe how particular services process personal information.

By using our web services and mobile apps, you signify your acceptance of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy, please do not use our services.

Information We Collect

You can visit our website and / or use our mobile apps without providing any personal information. However, if you wish to access copyrighted data or other sensitive information, our systems will require you to log in to our InfoVaya cloud service. InfoVaya requires a minimum set of personal data, i.e. your name, surname and email address in order to be able to manage your registration. It further allows you to voluntarily populate your professional profile with additional information such as telephone numbers, personal website address, workplace address, affiliation, title, a short bio in textual form. It also allows you to upload your resume in pdf format. We never ask – and we do not allow you – to upload sensitive personal data such as your social security number (or any other official identification numbers), credit card numbers, banking accounts information, information about your interests in and use of various products and services, your beliefs, orientations, etc.

Finally, through certain technologies employed by our services and mobile apps (e.g. Google analytics) we also collect non-personally identifiable information about you.

We may also collect and group demographic and user behaviour information that we collect from you into an aggregate, non-personally identifiable form for disclosure to our existing or potential business clients and partners. This aggregate data will in no way personally identify you or any other visitors to our web services or users of our mobile apps.

We may share the basic set of your personal information only, i.e. Name, Surname, Email Address, and Affiliation with our technical support partners for the sole purpose of the smooth operation of our services. The sharing of this data is protected by formal bilateral agreements for absolute confidentiality and personal data protection. We never share any of the personal information that we hold about you with any third parties for any other reason.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, please feel free to contact us through our website at <https://events.infovaya.com/contact-us>
